RE: Community Care Access Centres Branch Name Change

Effective Friday, April 1, 2005 we are pleased to announce that the Community Care Access Centres Branch will be changing its name to the Home Care and Community Support Branch.

The new name will better reflect the branch's mandate to develop tactical policy, provide funding and accountability frameworks for home care and community support services. These include the 42 Community Care Access Centres and the 717 community support services agencies and 220 elderly persons centres including assisted living services in supportive housing and acquired brain injury programs.
